The luncheon will be Feb. 14 instead of Feb. 7

Devotional: Elsie Phifer

Lesson: Betty Shikle, “Dorcas”

Greeter: Ruth Farley

Prayer: Elsie Phifer

CLOTHING WORK DAY TODAY

Feb. 5, there will be a clothing workday. This is to get ready for a clothes distribution sometime later on. Work will begin around 1:30 and will finish by 5:30. Plan to help, please, if you can.

Thank You Very Much

SYMPATHY

Bob Thomas, Sr., the father of Bobby Thomas passed away. Bobby and Cheryl attended here most of last summer. Mr. Thomas turned 79 last Sunday. He died Monday. The funeral services was held on Thursday at Crestview Memorial in Adamsville. .

POT LUCK LUNCHEON NEXT SUNDAY

Next Sunday will be the second Sunday in February, so we will have our regular monthly Pot Luck Luncheon on next Sunday, Feb. 12.

Hostesses will be Jackie Floyd, Elsie Phifer, Dianne Champion and Sybil Hogan.

HIT BY TORNADO

The house of Tom and Peggy Gorman in the Paradise Valley section of Clay had significant damage.

Dana Keith also had damage at the house she owns in Center Point. We will be working with the Roebuck Parkway Church to help those who need assistance. Our contributions are $2,130.00 so far.

If you would like to give to the tornado relief work, please make a second check to Palisades. In the bottom left corner, designate the check for tornado relief. Please drop this check in the collection basket along with your regular contribution check.

Thank you for your help

NEW CLASS

(For Men Only)

There will be a new Men's Class beginning March 6, 2012.

We will meet each Tuesday morning at 10:30 AM and we urge each of you men to plan to attend each week. Our course of study will be announced very soon and each man will be given a binder which will contain all the lessons.

From time to time we will have a guest speaker from outside Palisades Church of Christ to come in and present the lesson.

This is a great opportunity for you to be edified and to build up your faith so plan to attend and bring a friend.

This class will take place at the same time as the ladies class each week so you can bring your wife or lady friend to study also.

See Ray Brunner if more information is desired .

SEVEN NIGHTS A WEEK

Our church building is currently in use 7 nights a week. A singing group from Samford is practicing here every night except Wednesday and Sunday through February 14. The name of the group is Step Song. For the Step Song practice activity they have put blue painter's tape on the floor in the Fellowship Hall.

REMEMBER...

Please do not turn any A/C thermostat below 70 degrees or above 75 degrees

Sermon Notes

MEN'S DAY

The East Walker Church of Christ will have a Men's Day, with speaker, Glenn VanZandt, on Sat., Feb. 11, 2012 from 8 – 11 AM. The subject will be "Disciplines of a Godly Man".

Breakfast will be served from 8 – 8:45AM.

RSVP, or for info, call 205-648-3488.

MAGAZINE IN 13,000 HOMES

The second half of the Homewood mailing of the magazine House to House and Heart To Heart has been completed. Each mailing went to 6,500 Homewood residences.

"TEACHERS" NEEDED

We will be offering about 13,000 people the opportunity to study the Bible by Bible correspondence course. Please consider being a "teacher" for Bible Correspondence Course.

"STUDY THE BIBLE"

We are offering the Bible Correspondence Course to those not attending here. However we may have people already attending Palisades who would also like to study the Bible Correspondence course. Contact the church office.

~ Why I believe in Tim Tebow ~
By Rick Reilly ESPN

I've come to believe in Tim Tebow, but not for what he does on a football field, but for what he does off a football field, the things I want to be and so rarely am. Who among us is this selfless?

Every week, home or road, win or lose, hero or goat, Tebow picks out someone who is suffering, or who is dying, or who is injured, flies them and their families to the Broncos game, rents them a car, puts them up in a nice hotel, buys them dinner (usually at a Dave and Buster's), gets them and their families pregame passes, visits with them just before kickoff, gets them 30-yard line tickets, down low, visits with them after the game (sometimes for an hour), has them walk him to his car, and sends them off with a basket of gifts.

Remember recently, when the world was pulling its hair out in the hour after Tebow had stunned the Pittsburgh Steelers with an 80-yard OT touchdown pass to Demaryius Thomas in the playoffs? And Twitter was exploding with 9,420 tweets per second about Tebow? When an ESPN poll was naming him the most popular athlete in America? Tebow was spending that hour talking to 16-year-old Bailey Knaub about her 73 surgeries so far and what TV shows she likes. He'd just played the game of his life and the first thing he does after his press conference is come find Bailey and ask, 'Did you get anything to eat?' He acted like what he'd just done wasn't anything, like it was all about Bailey.

It's not just NFL defenses that get Tebowed. It's kids who will die soon. It's adults who can hardly stand. It's high school girls who don't know if they'll ever go to a prom. For the game at Buffalo, it was Charlottesville, Va., blue-chip high school QB Jacob Rainey, who lost his leg after a freak tackle in a scrimmage. "Where I'm from, people wonder how sincere and genuine he is. But I think he's the most genuine person I've ever met," says Rainey.

Take 9-year-old Zac Taylor, a child who lives in constant pain. Immediately after Tebow shocked the Chicago Bears with a 13-10 comeback win, Tebow spent an hour with Zac and his family. At one point, Zac, who has 10 doctors, asked Tebow if he has a secret prayer for hospital visits. Tebow whispered it in his ear. And since Tebow still needed to be checked out by the Broncos' team doctor, he took Zac in with him, but only after they'd whispered it together.

And it's not always kids. Tom Driscoll, a 55-year-old who is dying of brain cancer at a hospice in Denver, was Tebow's guest for the Cincinnati game. "The doctors took some of my brain," Driscoll says, "so my short-term memory is kind of shot. But that day I'll never forget."

Tim says, "The game doesn't really matter. I mean, I'll give 100 percent of my heart to win it, but in the end, the thing I most want to do is not win championships or make a lot of money, it's to invest in people's lives, to make a difference."

Note from Ray Brunner: The apostle Paul said it this way, "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain" (Philippians 1:21)
